Follow a 5k route through Douglasville's business and residential areas hunting for clues and solving puzzles. Registration fee of $200 per team of 2-5 people. All proceeds support the mission of the Good Samaritan Center, a community food bank that has helped needy residents of Douglas County for over 30 years. Registration forms available in Missions Hall.
- Embrace Grace
Kick-off Party, March 31, 4 to 6 p.m., Student Center
Our local pregnancy resource center sees on average 56 positive pregnancy tests a month. Embrace Grace equips churches to support and love on young women and their families who find themselves in an unintended pregnancy.

FPCD will begin an Embrace Grace group this August to share God's love with young women in our area during this difficult season in their lives. Join us for an Informational Kick-off Party March 31 from 4-6 in the Student Center. Faith McKinnis, regional director of Embrace Grace, will share her passion for and testimony of this life changing ministry.

There will also be an opportunity to write encouraging notes that PRC Medical will give to the brave girls we hope will join our Embrace Grace group and find the love and peace of Jesus. Questions? Contact April Benton at april.benton@att.net.
