

O4G Student Leadership Team

We are so excited that you're interested in being a part of our brand-new Student Leadership Team!

What is the Student Leadership Team?

- It's a team of high school students using their God-given gifts to serve God and their peers here at O4G.
- It's a place to learn how to share your faith and develop as a leader, all while growing spiritually.
- It's a team that works to make everyone in our student ministry feel valued, welcomed, and part of our "ODD" family.
- It's a place to share your voice and to plan O4G activities and events.

What's The Process for Joining?

- Read over the commitment and qualifications section.
- Pray about applying.
- Fill out the attached application.
- Have an interview with Tommy-Lee and Michael.
- If you are selected for the team, you and a parent will sign a commitment form, and then our team will begin its work!

Qualifications (Does This Describe You? Apply!)

- Looking to serve God by using your gifts (either up-front or behind-the-scenes).
- Demonstrates consistent spiritual growth and love for Christ, as witnessed by peers and leaders.
- Demonstrates a respectful and kind attitude toward peers and leaders.
- Consciously works to make good decisions.
- Demonstrates an attitude of collaboration rather than domination.
- We are not looking for someone who is perfect; we are looking for someone who is striving to be like Jesus as best as they can.

Commitment (What You Would Be Signing Up For)

- Regular church and youth group attendance.
- Personal growth through Bible study and prayer.
- A lifestyle befitting one who is a role model and follower of Christ, inside and outside church.
- "Being a light" on my campus, in my neighborhood, and in my home.
- With the whole team, welcome and engage all students who come to our events/gatherings.
- Attend monthly meetings (one Wednesday per month, 8-9pm)
- Attend events that the team has personally planned.
- Attend the one-day Student Leadership Team retreat.
- Serve in one or more Student Ministry areas according to your gifts (e.g. tech, announcements, drama, worship, connections, office, missions, info, prayer, game, photography, small groups, you name it, etc.)
- This is a 1-year commitment (September 2019-August 2020).
- Applications are due July 1.
